

Pakistan's Rulers Normalize Ties with the Enemy of Islam and Muslims, the Butcher of Syria, Bashar al-Assad

(Translated)

News:

On 23 November 2021, Pakistan's President, Arif Alvi, announced the willingness of his government for increased cooperation with the Syrian regime of Bashar al-Assad. President Alvi declared that Pakistan's government attaches great importance to its relations with Syria. He confirmed that Pakistan's rulers want to further promote and strengthen bilateral cooperation with the brotherly country in all areas of mutual interest. He added that both Syria and Pakistan enjoy excellent relations which are embedded in a shared history of religion, values and culture. On 31 October 2021, Pakistan signed a Memorandum of Understanding with Assad's regime, with an intent to enhance economic ties, during the next five years. [Syria.tv] On the same day, after twenty years of disruption, Pakistan resumed its flights to Damascus. The CEO of the national carrier Air Marshal Arshad Malik and Ambassador of Iraq to Pakistan Hamid Abbas Lafta were among the passengers of PK 291 on 31 October 2021.

Comment:

With or without signaling from the United States, the regime in Pakistan seeks to please its master in Washington, through normalization with America's agent in Syria. This is in line with the recommendations of the cauldrons for plots in Turkey and Jordan, which are known as Military Operation Centers (MOC), (Turkish MOM). These were formed from regional intelligence agencies under the American administration, in order to help and support the criminal regime of Bashar in Syria, to prevent its fall at the hands of sincere people of Syria. The public normalization of the regime comes after the normalization of other nations that previously boycotted the regime of Bashar over its war crimes and crimes against humanity. However, already, the Crown Prince of UAE has contacted the butcher of Syria, the UAE Foreign Minister, Abdullah bin Zayd, visited on 9 November.

The crimes of Bashar in Syria are unmistakable, exceeding all the crimes committed by butchers of the past and present. He has cold-bloodedly killed more than a million Muslims who rose up, demanding the liberation from tyranny and the calling for the Shariah of Allah (swt) to govern them. Bashar expelled more than half of the residents of Syria, a crime which has not ceased until this day. Despite that, the rulers of Pakistan, who govern a Muslim state that was founded in the name of Islam to escape from oppression and tyranny, has now come to tolerate and support one of the oppressive tyrants of this age. Indeed, the Alawi Nusairi regime in Syria is not less hostile to Islam and Muslims than its crusader master in Washington.

Yet, the reason for the closeness and normalization has come directly from the mouth of Aarif Alvi himself who said both the Pakistani regime and Alawis in Syria enjoy excellent relations, which are embedded in a shared history of religion, values, and culture. It is well-known to everyone who has insight and awareness that the religion, culture and values of the Alawis in Syria are not in any way similar to Islam and Muslims. Instead, the Alwai movement is an apostasy and the waging of war against Islam's Aqeedah, whilst its culture is that of the West and its values are of the criminal Western Capitalism.

Normalization with the world's butchers and tyrants is not surprising from a regime that is tolerant of the butcher of Gujarat, Modi, extending peace and normalization to India, despite its ongoing atrocities in Occupied Kashmir and India itself. So, Pakistan's rulers have no hesitancy in making normalization with those who kill Muslims, for the victims of the butcher of India are exactly the same as those of the butcher of Syria. It is also not surprising for Pakistan's rulers, as agents of America, to normalize relations with the Jewish entity, as it shares hostility towards Islam and killing of Muslims with Modi and Bashar. The hadith of the Prophet (saw) is true about the regime in Pakistan, as the Prophet (saw) says, «إِنَّ مِمَّا أَدْرَكَ النَّاسُ مِنْ كَلَامِ النَّبِيِّ إِذَا لَمْ تَسْتَجِ فَاصْنَعْ مَا شِئْتَ» “One of the sayings of the early Prophets which the people have got is: If you don't feel ashamed do whatever you like.” [Bukhari]

The reality of Pakistan's current regime is similar to that of Syria's regime. Neither regime has any semblance of representation of its people. Both regimes are servants in the employ of the West, facilitating and implementing the interests of the West in the Islamic World, including the prevention of the return of Islam to ruling, by torturing and oppressing those who work for Islam, demanding the ruling by Islam. Therefore, if the people of Nussrah, power and strength in Pakistan do not stop this regime, they will share with the regime in its sins, may Allah (swt) forbid it. It is obligatory upon the people of power and strength in Pakistan to atone for their sins, by granting their Nussrah to the activists, who are sincere to return the ruling by all that Allah (swt) has revealed in Pakistan first, followed by the world.
