

The US is Exploiting EU Countries, Including France and Germany, to Achieve its Goals in the Ukraine Crisis

News:

The German Bundestag voted by a convincing majority in favor of expanding and accelerating the provision of heavy weapons to Ukraine.

"The German Bundestag strongly condemns Russia's brutal war of aggression against Ukraine. In doing so, Russia grossly violates international and humanitarian law and tries to permanently destroy the European peace order," the document reads. Comment:

Two months after the start of the Russian invasion of Ukraine, we can say the following:

Russia has suffered a crushing defeat in its attempts to seize Kyiv and change power in Ukraine. They turned out to be victims of their own propaganda, and that the Ukrainian army would not resist, as well as that the Ukrainian people would meet the Russians with bread and flowers. The propaganda they waged inside Russia turned against them. Sorcery turned against the sorcerer.

Russia could not take any regional center except Kherson. Even Sumy and Kharkov, which are located 40 kilometers from the Russian border, they could not take. As for Kherson, despite its capture by the Russians, pro-Ukrainian rallies are taking place in this city. That is, the myth of so called "Russian world" has collapsed; this is a very strong ideological defeat of Russia in this war.

Some wonder why the conflict in Ukraine is not ending.

The US wants to use Russia for its own purposes, as it was in Syria, Libya, and other countries. The Ukrainian crisis is a bargaining chip in the hands of the United States, which it has been using for 8 years now for its own purposes. The US wants to embroil Europe, in particular Germany, with Russia, and apparently this time America has succeeded. NATO is getting stronger in Europe. The EU has decided to abandon Russian energy resources. But this will take some time. Therefore, the United States is in no hurry to give Ukraine weapons. Before the war, the US and its allies lured Russia into Ukraine by saying that Russia could take Kyiv in a matter of days. All this was done in order to drag Russia into the swamp in Ukraine.

Moreover, now the situation looks such that the West, led by the United States, has set the goal of changing the Russian regime and so weakening Russia will take some time.

All this leads to the weakening of Russia, Europe and China against the background of the strengthening of the international weight of the United States. What is happening today in Ukraine once again reminds us of the responsibility of the Islamic Ummah, a responsibility that is not limited solely to the protection of Islam, Islamic values, and the well-being of the Islamic Ummah; no, this responsibility also implies concern for the well-being and prosperity of the whole world.

Undoubtedly, only the Islamic rule, embodied in a single Muslim power, the Khilafah (Caliphate) on the method of Prophethood, will be able to oppose the modern greedy superpowers, for which the blood of women, children and the elderly, whether they are Muslims or non-Muslims, is nothing more than a means to achieve their criminal goals.

Undoubtedly, only Islam, the Islamic Ummah and the Sharia of Allah are able to save this humanity from the heinous crimes of Capitalism and its followers.
