

He who takes orders from Allah, Rules according to Islam, Not According to Secularism and Democracy, O Erdogan!

News:

Where does Mr Kemal and his supporters get their orders from? From the terrorists in Kandil. And we take orders from Allah. On 14th May, are we ready to bury those who take orders from the mountain? I have no doubt about that. (Haber7, 03/05/2023)

Comment:

Erdoğan, who has no narrative left to present and explain to the public, besides distributing a large amount of gist and making opening after opening in order to win the upcoming 14 May elections, also plays with the Islamic feelings of Muslims, exploits their feelings, and describes the elections as a struggle between the right and the false, between the champagne drinkers and the prostrates, between those who step on the prayer rug with their shoes and those who put their foreheads on it. He says that the opponents represent the West and take orders from the devil, while he represents the right and takes orders from Allah.

In reality, the politicians and secular political parties in Turkey are the representatives of falsehood, not the truth, and they take orders from England or America, not from Allah. Because the direction and motto of those who take orders from Allah would be the Qur'an and Sunnah, but the direction and motto of the politicians and secular parties in Turkey is secularism and democracy, and their qibla is America or England. Accordingly, the struggle of the secular and democratic parties in Turkey is the struggle of the falsehoods, not of the truth and falsehood, in other words, the struggle of the colonialist infidel America and Britain. The only difference between them is that the conservatives, the so-called soft Islamists and clansmen, whose backbone is formed by the pro-American AKP and MHP (Republican's Alliance), disguise their secular "Islamic" identity by pretending to be Muslims, and use Islam as a tool for America's political ambitions. On the other hand, the soft Kemalists and skullcasters, whose backbone is formed by the pro-British CHP and the IYI Party (Nation's Alliance), are trying to forget their dark past with Islamic discourses that do not suit their mouths because their past is full of Islamophobia, and they are trying to use Islam as a tool for Britain's political ambitions by disguising themselves as Muslims in order to hide their Islamophobic strict secular identities. In other words, one of them is a master and expert in "Islamic" juggling, while the other strives to be an "Islamic" juggler, but both of them have one goal: to ensure the continuity of the Satanic and evil secular and democratic system and to prevent the Islamic system (Khilafah) from coming to power.

In fact, Erdoğan with the statement "Mr Kemal takes orders from the terrorists in Kandil. We take orders from Allah", he admits in a very skillful language that no one can understand that the political conflict in Turkey is between the Americanist

"Allahists" who, as I mentioned above, specialise in using Islam as a tool for their political ambitions and the pro-British Kandilists.

On the other hand, Erdoğan's rhetoric is incompatible with the reality in Turkey. Erdoğan does not take orders from Allah in economy, politics, foreign policy, social life, education, in short, in all areas of life. If he had taken the command from Allah, he would have abolished usury instead of reducing it according to Allah's command, he would not have allied himself with the enemies of Islam and Muslims, Russia and America in foreign policy, he would not have implemented secularism in education and democracy in governance, and he would not have liberalised alcohol and fornication. It is obvious that Erdoğan governs according to secularism and democracy in every aspect of life. We are not going to explain this at length here, these are just examples.

A person who takes the command from Allah would implement Islam in every aspect of life, not in rhetoric but in practice, just like the Messenger of Allah (Sallallahu Alayhi wa Sallam) and the Rashid Caliphs after him. The way to do this is not democracy but Khilafah (Caliphate). As long as there is no Khilafah, there is no reality in the fact of taking orders from Allah or implementing Islam in life, it is only a deception. Muslims must not fall into this trap. They should stay away from those who use only Islamic discourse and those who try to use Islamic discourse. They should boycott both alliances in the elections. There is no such thing as the lesser of two evils, both are evil, no good is expected from evil.

﴿وَمَنْ أَحْسَنُ قَوْلًا مِّمَّنْ دَعَا إِلَى اللَّهِ وَعَمِلَ صَالِحًا وَقَالَ إِنَّنِي مِنَ الْمُسْلِمِينَ﴾

“And whose words are better than someone who calls others to Allah, does good, and says, “I am truly one of those who submit.”?” [Fussilat: 33]
