

The Rulers of the United Arab Emirates Squander the Ummah's Wealth for the Sake of their English Masters

(Translated)

News:

The United States announced on Friday, 21 March 2025, that the United Arab Emirates will invest $1.4 trillion over the next ten years, following a meeting between US President Donald Trump and the Deputy Ruler of Abu Dhabi and UAE National Security Advisor, Sheikh Tahnoun bin Zayed Al Nahyan, at the White House. A press release from the US Embassy in the UAE stated that "the UAE proudly committed to a 10-year, $1.4 trillion-dollar investment framework in the United States. This new framework will substantially increase the UAE's existing investments in the U.S. economy in AI infrastructure, semiconductors, energy, and American manufacturing" (Arabic.CNN)

Comment:

The Gulf States in general, and the United Arab Emirates (UAE) in particular, are nothing more than petrol pumps for the British, as one member of the British Parliament put it. This reality drives the British to use these vassal states in this capacity, and nothing more. Anyone who wants to understand what lies behind these Emirati investments in America, must investigate what Britain wants to achieve from this deal. It must not occur to any observer that the UAE, and the Ruwaibadah, lowly rulers that rule it, have any personal, or "national," interest in any action they undertake, whether regionally or internationally.

The United Arab Emirates (UAE) is nothing more than a British colonialist base in the Islamic world, from which the mother of all evils, Britain, launches its campaign to wreak havoc in the Islamic world, confront American encroachment, compete with the US for international standing and influence, and plunder and subjugate the wealth of the people. This is the political concept from which we must begin to analyze, and understand, what lies behind this investment, by Britain's servant in the Emirates, within the country Britain hates most, America.

Since the division of the world into two camps, between the Soviet Union and America, in 1964, brokered by Khrushchev and Kennedy, America has sought to usurp Britain's spheres of influence and colonialism, particularly in the Islamic region of the world, given its wealthier, more affluent, and more politically and ideological nature. America has largely succeeded in achieving this, transforming Britain from the empire on which the sun never sets, into a second-rate power.

Nevertheless, Britain has not surrendered to the American cowboy, despite its weakness and awareness of this weakness, which prevents it from confronting America head-on in international conflicts. Therefore, it has adopted a policy of walking in the shadow of the American giant, and placing spokes in the wheels of its chariot, whenever the opportunity arises.

An example of this is the UAE's intervention in the ongoing conflict in Sudan led by America's agents, Burhan and Hemedti, and its support for one of them, Hemedti, only to allow the British a foothold in Sudan and among the conflicting parties. This is so that the British can influence the course of events and their outcomes, and at the very least, spoil America's plans by, as we mentioned, throwing a spanner in the works.

Yet another example is the UAE's efforts to establish a foothold in liberated Syria, under the pretext of investment, as well as its intervention in Yemen to preserve as much of what remains of British influence there, after the overthrow of Britain's veteran agent, Ali Abdullah Saleh.

Britain, which refused to surrender to American encroachment, dreamed of doing the same within America, and within the Jewish state. It believes that through its agent's investments in the belly of its enemy, it can stab the American beast in the heart at the right time. However, America is aware of this reality, and businessman and US President, Donald J. Trump, believes he is capable of containing, and controlling, these games, and benefiting immediately from these investments. Trump does not believe the British are capable of stabbing him in the belly if they wanted, especially since they are under close surveillance and control, as he believes.

The question remains: Can Britain betray America or not? Will Britain truly remain under American control, allowing America to benefit from these investments, without suffering any toxic effects? This question remains subject to the vigilance of each fox, regarding the other. However, it does not appear that Britain will be capable of betrayal. Yet, the “honor” of trying remains with it, especially since it has not spent a single penny from its treasury, while fighting to the last of its agents, without ever being hit by any shrapnel, from any possible explosions.

As for the UAE’s investments in the Jewish state, its normalization with it, its Judaification through its adoption of the Abraham Accords, and its support for the Jews against the people of Palestine and Gaza, all of these dirty deeds are merely an attempt to gain a foothold for its master, Britain, in the world’s hottest issue, the so-called Middle East conflict.

This is especially true after British influence in the Jewish entity weakened, or almost ended, following the assassination of Rabin, at the hands of pro-American Jewish extremists based in New York. This followed Rabin and Peres concluding the Oslo Accords away from America’s gaze, with British engineering the arrangement, along with the British agent, the head of the Jewish Labor Party, Peres, and the greatest British traitor, Yasser Arafat.

The reason the UAE is committing all these heinous crimes and dirty deeds with, and within, the Jewish entity, are nothing more than an attempt to restore British influence within the Jewish state, or, at the very least, to put a spoke in the wheels of America, and its projects in the region.

The conflict between the forces of kufr in the world, especially among members of the Western camp, will not end until one of them eliminates and destroys the others. This is the Western capitalist colonialist mentality, which rejects cooperation, sharing, and mutual understanding. A loaf of bread is only eaten by those who kill everyone else present. This is the capitalist ideology clearly revealed in the character of the American businessman-president, the pirate in the White House.

However, what weighs heavy in the soul is that the best Ummah brought forth for mankind has become, and its wealth has become, the fuel for this filthy conflict. Yet, at the same time, what also reassures the soul is that these realities, tricks, and tools have been revealed to the Ummah. The Ummah has come to know its enemy, and the extent of his treachery and capabilities, and is preparing to liberate itself from him.

This will undoubtedly happen soon, in shaaAllah, through the Ummah’s awareness of the civilizational alternative represented by Islam, represented by the state of the Khilafah Rashidah (Rightly-Guided Caliphate) on the Method of Prophethood, which will soon be established, inshaaAllah, by the strength of the Ummah and its loyal sons and daughters who work to establish it. In these blessed days, we ask Allah to open the hearts of the people of power in the Islamic world to grant Nussrah (material support) for Islam, establish its state, and pledge a Bayah to a Khaleefah (Caliph) for the Muslims... O Allah! Aameen.

﴿وَعَدَ اللَّهُ الَّذِينَ آمَنُوا مِنكُمْ وَعَمِلُوا الصَّالِحَاتِ لَيَسْتَخْلِفَنَّهُمْ فِي الْأَرْضِ كَمَا اسْتَخْلَفَ الَّذِينَ مِن قَبْلِهِمْ وَلَيُمَكِّنَنَّ لَهُمْ دِينَهُمُ الَّذِي ارْتَضَىٰ لَهُمْ وَلَيُبَدِّلَنَّهُم مِّن بَعْدِ خَوْفِهِمْ أَمْنًا ۚ يَعْبُدُونَنِي لَا يُشْرِكُونَ بِي شَيْئًا ۗ وَمَن كَفَرَ بَعْدَ ذَلِكَ فَأُولَٰئِكَ هُمُ الْفَاسِقُونَ﴾

“Allah (swt) has promised those of you who believe and do good that He will certainly make them successors in the land, as He did with those before them. He (swt) will surely establish for them their Deen which He has chosen for them. He (swt) will indeed change their fear into security, provided that they worship Me, associating nothing with Me. However, whoever disbelieves after this promise, it is they who will be the evil-doers.”
