Democracy is a Rule of Kufr, Deserving Only Abolition

Advocating Democracy yet again, Pakistan Tehreek-i-Insaf (PTI) Chairman Imran Khan on 18 July 2016 reiterated that Pakistan faced no threat from the army, but it faced a threat from the “monarchy of Nawaz Sharif”. However, instead of repeating that people would celebrate army’s takeover of government in Pakistan, he modified his earlier statement by saying that if Mr Sharif were in place of Mr Erdogan the coup in Turkey would have succeeded. Speaking at rallies in Bagh and Muzaffarabad, he recalled the 1999 coup and said when retired Gen Pervez Musharraf deposed Mr Sharif, people of Pakistan did not come out on the roads the way Turkish people did on 15 July.

Due to its blind and ignorant embrace of Democracy, the opposition has established how out of touch it is with the Ummah. The Muslims of Turkey did not come out for anything other than Islam, they courageously stood before the tanks shouting, “Ya Allah Ya Allah, Allahu Akbar Allahu Akbar” responding to the Duas and the Azaan. They did not take to the streets for the sake of democracy, but rather they went out for the sake of Islam against the secularists. And the Muslims of Pakistan are part of the same Ummah, with the masajid, market places and public places of Pakistan all dominated by discussions for Islam, including awareness of the fact that Democracy is a system of Kufr, which places the whims and desires of men over the commands of Allah (swt) and His Messenger (saw). And were the officers of Pakistan's armed forces to perform their duty and grant Nussrah for the re-establishment of the Khilafah (Caliphate) on the Method of the Prophethood, then the world will witness how the streets will flood with Muslims celebrating the return of the ruling by Islam. Allah (swt) said, ﴿وَاللَّهُ وَرَسُولُهُ أَحَقُّ أَنْ يُرْضُوهُ إِنْ كَانُوا مُؤْمِنِينَ﴾ “Allah and His Messenger are more worthy for them to satisfy, if they should be believers.” [At-Tawba 9: 62]

The Right of the Muslims of Kashmir is the Mobilization of Pakistan's Armed Forces

The Muslims seethed with anger at reports of the Indian soldiers fired on a stone-throwing crowd defying a curfew in Occupied Kashmir, martyring three Muslims, of which two were chaste women, by Hindu occupying forces. Authorities have imposed a curfew in the disputed region, blocked mobile phones and briefly ordered curbs on newspapers to stop people from gathering and to control the worst outbreak of unrest there in six years. Late on 18 July 2016, protesters blocked a road and threw stones at an army convoy. “Some miscreants then tried to snatch weapons from the army and tried to set vehicles on fire,” a police spokesman claimed. The army opened fire after the protesters refused to heed warnings and two women were killed, the spokesman said. A third person died in hospital on 19 July 2016, taking the death toll to at least 42 since protests erupted on July 9 over the killing of Burhan Wani, a much respected mujahid. This pure Muslim blood is added to the rivers of blood that have been shed since the beginning of the Hindu State's occupation. And this pure Muslim blood is added to the account of the criminal rulers of Pakistan who have abandoned the Muslims of Kashmir, denying them their right for the Muslim troops to confront the Hindu forces.

Has the time not come that the officers of Pakistan's armed forces to break the bonds of these rulers who have buried the Muslims in humiliation and disgrace before lowly enemies, instead of moving them to the battlefield? How the rulers allow the silence of our weapons when the cries of the oppressed are heard, which resembles the silence of the dead, even whilst they watch with their own eyes the Hindus confronting the one who wields stones, with live, lethal ammunition? Worse, these despicable rulers ask the international community to answer the cries of our oppressed, a community dominated by the foremost in hostility against the Muslims, from the East and the West.

Is there not amongst our officers the one who is eager to seek the pleasure of Allah (swt) and Jannah? Is there not amongst our officers the one who is keen for the honour of this world and the Hereafter? Is there not amongst our officers the one who is eager to seek and is willing to sell himself in exchange for the pleasure of Allah (swt) and is willing to stand up against these rulers and their evil and thus help Allah (swt) and His Messenger (saw)? Is there not a Mu'tasim, a Salahudin, a Muhammad bin Qassim, amongst our officers to avenge the Muslims of the Kashmir of the brutality of the enemy? The Hindu enemy is not all powerful; his strength is only because of the betrayal of those who command authority over our armed forces. The Hindu enemies are terrified when faced by crowds wielding stones and small groups of poorly-armed mujahideen, so what will be their plight when a Khaleefah Rashid mobilizes a prepared Muslim armed forces?

So the brave and sincere of the armed forces must overturn humiliation and restore dignity and victory to the Ummah. They must seize the neck of the stonehearted rulers and grant Nussrah for the restoration of the Khilafah (Caliphate) on the Method of the Prophethood, the shield of the Muslims. Allah (swt) said, ﴿يَا أَيُّهَا الَّذِينَ ءَامَنُوا اسْتَجِيبُوا لِلَّهِ وَلِلرَّسُولِ إِذَا دَعَاكُمْ لِمَا يُحْيِيكُمْ﴾ “O you who have believed, respond to Allah and to the Messenger when he calls you to that which gives you life” [Surah an-Anfal 8:24].

Kashmir and Pakistan Must Be Khilafah

Indian forces in Occupied Kashmir removed dozens of black and Pakistani flags hoisted by residents observing a “black day” on 20 July 2016 in protest against the killing of a top mujahid leader. Indian forces feared fresh trouble in the disputed region after Pakistan called for observing a “black day” to express solidarity with Kashmiris facing atrocities at the hands of security personnel. The largest street protests in recent years erupted after Indian troops on July 8 killed Burhan Wani, the popular 22-year-old leader of the Himalayan region's largest militant group.

The intensity of protests by the Muslims of Kashmir has been so strong and powerful that the Nawaz Sharif acknowledged the severity of the Kashmir issue and had to announce a Black Day, even though he is foremost amongst those who support and propagate the idea of normalization with India, which means the burial of the Kashmir issue. Moreover, the Muslims of Kashmir have smashed the false impression that they have abandoned hope in becoming part of Pakistan, despite the open treachery of Pakistan's rulers. The feeling for Kashmir banayga Pakistan “Kashmir will be Pakistan” is still dominant on either side of the Line of Control. The Pakistani flag is prominent in their protesting, confirming that their fate is aligned with the Muslims of Pakistan. Once again it has been established that the Muslims of Kashmir and Pakistan love each other and their destiny is the same.

The cowardly Raheel-Nawaz regime will never annex occupied Kashmir as this as it is against the interest of its master, America, who wants to strengthen India. If this regime had been strong and sincere for the Muslims of Kashmir and Pakistan, as it pretends to be, it would have declared Jihad. Protection will only be witnessed under the sincere and strong leadership, a Khaleefah Rashid, who will rule according to the Quran and Sunnah, unify Muslim lands and their armies who will be mobilized to Srinagar to end Indian occupation decisively and liberate the Muslims of Kashmir. And the command of Allah (swt) is to fight those who fought us and expel us from our houses, as Allah (swt) says: ﴿إِنَّمَا يَنْهَاكُمْ اللَّهُ عَنِ الَّذِينَ قَاتَلُوكُمْ فِي الدِّينِ وَأَخْرَجُوكُم مِّن دِيَارِكُمْ وَظَاهَرُوا عَلَىٰ إِخْرَاجِكُمْ أَن تَوَلَّوهُمْ وَمَن يَتَوَلَّهُمْ فَأُولَٰئِكَ هُمُ الظَّالِمُونَ﴾ “It is only as regards those who fought against you on account of religion, and have driven you out of your homes, and helped to drive you out, that Allah forbids you to befriend them. And whosoever will befriend them, then such are the Zalimun (oppressors).” [Surah Al-Mumtahina 60:9]

US Fears Regarding a Coup for Khilafah in Pakistan

The White House has said that it would not like to speculate if Pakistan was next after Turkey to have a military coup and reiterated its desire to continue a productive relationship with the country. The possibility of a military coup in Pakistan was explored at a Washington think-tank this week and it resurfaced at the White House news briefing on 18 July when an Indian journalist referred to this debate and asked if Pakistan was next. “Well, I’m certainly not going to speculate about the political situation in another country. Obviously the United States has an important relationship with Pakistan,” said White House Press Secretary Josh Earnest.

For some time, America has been concerned that matters will slip out of its hands as it seeks control of the Muslim World through the Muslim armed forces. In an interview with the Washington Times on 24 November 2008, Army Maj. Gen. John M. Custer, commander of the U.S. Army Intelligence Centre at Fort Huachuca, Arizona, announced with regret that, “The older military leaders love us, they understand American culture, and they know we are not the enemy, but they are aging out of the force.” In the Washington Post in March 2009, David Kilcullen, former adviser to then CENTCOM Commander General, David H Petraeus, on America’s war, said, “Pakistan has 173 million people, 100 nuclear weapons, an army bigger than the US Army ... we could see the collapse of the Pakistani state ... an extremist takeover -- that would dwarf everything we’ve seen in the war on terror today.”

Through its agents in Pakistan's military leadership, American has instituted a policy of purging those officers who are anti-American or inclined to Islam that is being pursued by America's agents throughout the Muslim World. In submission to US demands, the Raheel Nawaz regime has fully engaged the ISI and military intelligence in purging the armed forces of anti-American officers, so the US has effectively overseen the super-ceding, retirement, house arrest and court martial of many Islam loving officers within the entire armed forces who challenged the US plan. The need of the time for the Muslim World is the sincere within the armed forces to grant Nussrah for the restoration of the Khilafah upon the method of the Prophethood, which is the only coup that the Ummah needs.
