

Press Release

It is the Principle of Islam that Terrifies You, Netanyahu, and Those Behind You

(Translated)

The heroic Shaheed (martyr) Maher al-Jazi carried numerous messages when he killed three of the criminals who usurp the Blessed Land of Palestine at the crossing occupied by the deformed entity of the Jews, with the complicity of agent rulers, and with a rope still extended to them by the Western kufr (disbelieving) states, in the absence of the Islamic Ummah. The crossing they call "Allenby" is named after General Allenby, who infamously said, "Now the Crusades are over," upon his victory in Jerusalem (Quds) over the Ottoman armies in 1917.

Before the butcher Netanyahu saw the popular reactions in Jordan to the operation carried out by the heroic shaheed Maher al-Jazi, he raised his voice saying, "This is a difficult day, and we are surrounded by a deadly ideology led by the Iranian axis of evil." However, the overwhelming popular reactions, expressing joy at the victory of that heroic shaheed in delivering his messages to the intended parties, contradicted Netanyahu's attempt to attribute this honor to Iran. Iran's rulers are no different from the rest of the agent rulers of the Muslims and are not worthy of this great honor.

This was not your only difficult day. Your difficult days have increased, and we bring you the glad tidings that all your coming days will be difficult for you, by the will of Allah. You are the ones who have attacked the lands of the Muslims and committed massacres, one after another.

The operation of the heroic shaheed Maher al-Jazi highlighted the name of the usurped crossing (Allenby) in the media and on satellite channels, reminding those who had forgotten of the withdrawal of the shade of the Khilafah (Caliphate) from Al-Quds, followed by its disappearance from the whole world. It also reminds us of that general and his infamous statement. From that day, the Western kufr states, along with the Jews, began a second Crusade against the Muslims, a war that is still ongoing to this hour. Its outcome will soon be the same as the outcome of the first Crusades, by Allah's will, a decisive victory for this principle and its true followers. You will dig your own graves with your own hands, and a tide will sweep away the agent rulers and their allies in the Muslim lands. Mighty armies will carry guidance and light in one hand, and fear and death in the other. Then, you will truly witness difficult days, and that is not far away.
