On the backdrop of the Nuclear Bomb Attack on Nagasaki The West is the Enemy of Muslims and Humanity

(Translated)

On 9/8/2018, Japan commemorated the 73rd anniversary of the victims of the atomic bomb dropped by the United States on Nagasaki during the final days of the Second World War. About 74,000 people died from the effects of the bomb, while the bomb that hit the city of Hiroshima on 6/8/1945 claimed the lives of 140,000 who were considered by US Colonel Harry Cunningham as legitimate targets. And he even considered all the population of Japan as legitimate targets. This nuclear attack is a stark testimony to the absence of any moral, human or spiritual value in the policies of the Kafir colonial countries. We need long records to count the shameful crimes committed by Western countries in their brutal campaigns to colonize the world over the past centuries, sparing no spot in the world from any of these crimes; we refer only to the most prominent of these: the war of extermination of the Native American Indians in the New World (North, Central and South America), or the wars of plundering Africa's wealth and enslavement of the people, or the famous opium war that Britain (famous for the saying: "white man's burden") sought to enrich its treasury at the expense of the Chinese people, all the way to the American nuclear bombs dropped on Hiroshima and Nagasaki without any military strategic justification. This is by the testimony of senior military commanders in America, including General Eisenhower commander of US forces in Europe, and Admiral William Halsey, who said, "the first atomic bomb was an unnecessary experiment... It was a mistake.... [the scientists] had this toy and they wanted to try it out, so they dropped it!"

Of course, the record of Western criminality has not stopped at this point; Vietnam's history, villages and countryside testify to the extent of the American evil that despite raising the alleged Statue of Liberty in New York's Ellis Island, its political and military leaders did not rest while enjoying their toys, including internationally banned weapons, from napalm to Agent Orange Chemical warfare, which is forbidden only on paper. Otherwise modern warfare (from World War I to War II) has seen what the pen cannot describe of the massacres, including the killing of wounded prisoners in hospitals, of course. In addition to waging full blown out wars that do not discriminate between a child or woman, old man or woman, human life is of no value to these demons of humankind, all these crimes are committed under what name? In order to achieve the colonial interests for a handful of capitalists who control the country and the people!!

Therefore, it is so strange when you hear or read a statement by one or another of the son of Muslims who call upon the "international community" to implement such and such a decision by the Security Council or the United Nations, which unite only on evil and criminality. The latest is the demand of the so-called "representatives" of the Syrian opposition from the international bodies, and the Security Council to put "pressure" on the regime of Damascus' Butcher to release detainees! Are they ignorant of the fact that the "international community" was the first to know the truth of the crimes of Bashar and before him his perished father Hafez, as well as the crimes of Sisi, and their likes of the rulers of Muslim the criminals who do not honour any pact or ties with the believers? If they do not know that it is a calamity, and if they know, then the calamity is greater.

It is time for our Ummah to realize the reality of the conflict it is engaged in, which forces it to identify the friend from the enemy: the colonial West, along with its Russian partners, are the enemy, and the tools to implement Western policies from international bodies and the so-called "international community" and "international legitimacy" are all lethal tools that must be denounced. We must work to restore the Ummah's decision in its own hands. It must not allow the tyrannical states to take control of our issues or to promote their poisoned solutions. This applies to all our issues from Palestine to Syria, Sudan, Kashmir and others.
