Alliances of the Arab Regimes... Collaboration in Sin, Aggression, and Betrayal will not result in the Survival of the Jewish entity nor of the Kaffir Western Colonialists

(Translated)

It was not expected that the Arab regimes would unequivocally support the people of Gaza with their stationed armies, and perhaps that is for the better. Maybe Allah disliked their mobilization, so He restrained them. If they had gone out, they would have added nothing to the steadfast and valiant mujahideen, except confusion. They would have conspired with their allies, the Jews and Christians, seeking to sow discord (fitneh) among them. Or perhaps, they would have sought a share in the victories achieved by the resilient and steadfast people of Gaza, behind the sincere warriors of Allah. We consider them as such. Doubt would have arisen about the fall of these oppressive rulers into the arms of their enemies.

These weak and traitorous regimes remained silent, like the dead, in the face of the horrors that stirred people's emotions worldwide. However, it was hoped and remains a duty that the pride and dignity within the armies of the Ummah should move and triumph for their Allah, fighting alongside the people of Gaza.

Instead, these regimes hold public and secret meetings with the leaders of the Western Americans and Europeans. They convene in shuttle diplomacy in the service of America and Europe, discussing how to dominate the people of Palestine, settle the Palestinian issue, empower the Jewish entity, despite its brutality and crimes, and achieve political, military, security, and economic interests for the disbelieving Western colonial powers - America, Britain, and Europe. They aim to consolidate their influence and support for the Jewish entity.

So, alliances and meetings between the leaders of Arab countries and their ministers, whether bilateral or multilateral, in the Middle East occur from time to time and fade away. These alliances are often shaped and determined by regional competition, international intervention, and the intense struggle for influence among Western colonial powers, led by America, Britain, and France. The relationships between capitalist countries are based on gains and interests, and they took a dramatic turn after the war in Gaza provoked reactions and disturbances in the stances of these countries, which were not part of their political plans to conspire against the Ummah. These plans were initially focused on security, counterterrorism, energy security, industrial integration, trade, and reconstruction, all aimed at empowering America, its allies, and the Jewish entity.

Axios news website revealed a secret meeting of top national security officials from Saudi Arabia, Jordan, Egypt, and Palestine in Riyadh ten days ago. The meeting aimed to coordinate plans for the day after the end of the aggression on Gaza, discussing ways to involve the Palestinian Authority in governance. The sources told the website that "the meeting in Riyadh was hosted by Saudi National Security Adviser Dr. Musaed bin Mohammed Al-Aiban." Other participants included Majed Faraj, the head of Palestinian General Intelligence Service, his Egyptian counterpart Abbas Kamel, and the Jordanian Major General Ahmad Husni. One source mentioned that "the Saudis, Egyptians, and Jordanians informed Faraj that the Palestinian Authority needs to undertake serious reforms to revitalize its political leadership." The Saudi National Security Advisor emphasized during the meeting that "the Kingdom remains interested in moving forward with normalization with 'Israel'."

In another meeting, the Director of the Central Intelligence Agency (CIA), William Burns, held talks in the French capital, Paris, with the Qatari Prime Minister, Mohammed bin Abdulrahman, and the head of Egyptian intelligence, Abbas Kamel. The meeting also involved the head of Mossad. The Qatari Prime Minister and Foreign Minister stated that Qatar's role is mediation, not exerting pressure on the parties, emphasizing that Qatar has no influence over anyone.

On another note, New Arab (Al-Araby Al-Jadeed) highlighted a meeting held on Monday evening between senior officials from the Egyptian General Intelligence and leaders of Hamas who have been in Cairo for several days. The purpose of the meeting was to hand over the agreements reached in the Paris meeting to the Hamas delegation and discuss the initial observations of the movement.

The recent trilateral summit between Egypt, Jordan, and Palestine took place in the city of Aqaba, aiming to find a practical approach to resolving the crisis in Gaza. The summit emphasized the rejection of displacement, called for a ceasefire, and sought to facilitate the passage of aid. King Abdullah visited Egypt three times after the Gaza war and hosted President Sisi and Abbas in what is referred to as the Aqaba Summit.

Multiple communications and visits by American politicians, including Secretary of State Blinken, Defense Secretary Austin, and the National Security Advisor, have taken place in the Middle East and the Jewish entity. These visits are part of the unlimited military support for the entity. However, they also involve political pressure on the right-wing leaders in Netanyahu's government, aligning with American dictates for regional leaders within the framework of a two-state solution and maintaining the humiliating security, military, and logistical support for the defeated entity.

Regarding these meetings, alliances, and visits to Arab regimes, the following points can be highlighted:

- The reliance of the Arab regimes on their alliances with the United States and Europe is illusory and deceptive. It will turn against them and the Jewish entity with destruction and disappointment, given the awakening of the Ummah and its awareness of its enemies. The time is near when they will be gone, by the will of Allah.

- These alliances will not yield any submissive solutions in settling the Palestinian issue or establishing the hypothetical two-state solution. Neither will they result in any bilateral or regional agreements between the Jews, the West, and the collaborating regimes, be they normalization, economic, military, or security agreements.

- These alliances and meetings were not at any time in the interest of the people of these weak regimes and were not of help to the people of Gaza in their heroic confrontation.

These regimes conspire to liquidate them to serve the 'Israeli' war machine. Egypt closes the Rafah crossing to prevent aid, and passage requires paying thousands of dollars to Egyptian intelligence companies. Jordan collaborates with Gulf States and Saudi Arabia to support the Jewish entity, providing an alternative route for goods through Dubai, Mecca, and the Jordanian and occupied Palestinian territories. Additionally, Jordan receives American weapons shipments destined for the Jews and supplies it with vegetables and fruits, etc..

- The defeat of the disgraceful Jewish entity on October 7, 2023, and its subsequent defeats by valiant mujahideen have left a lasting mark on the conscience of the entire nation. It will only be completely erased through the final battle in eradicating it from its roots.

- America and Europe, and those who orbit them with their sins, aggression, and declarations, are the greatest enemies of the Islamic Ummah. This is firmly established in the people's minds and any relationship with them will only be a state of war. Their soldiers and bases scattered in the Muslim lands will not benefit them, as these bases were established through collusion with the rulers of the Muslims.

- The rulers of the Muslims themselves are struggling for survival, and their alliance with the enemies of the Ummah and their repeated meetings are proof of the extent of their fear and the shaking of their thrones who mistakenly believe that Jews and the West are preventing their imminent downfall, and they fail to learn from those who fell before them.

- The entire world has risen against the heinous actions of the Jews and the vile stances of America and Europe. The so-called international organizations and legitimate institutions are desperate for change in this wretched and devilish global system. The only real change will be through a fundamental ideological return to Islam, the Deen revealed by the Lord of the worlds, organizing human life in accordance with it.

- Despite the fall of the rotten capitalism and false democracy from the minds and hearts of people worldwide, there must be efforts to restore the Khilafah Rashidah (rightly guided Caliphate), on the method of the Prophethood, to establish the Deen as the Prophet (saw) did in Medina Al-Munawwara. The oppressive kufr states need a state as an adversary to overthrow them and change the global system to one that achieves justice and equality.

As the betrayals of these treacherous rulers are exposed, the hope of the Ummah today lies in its people of strength and power and is binding on every member of its army. They must act to fight the Jews in Gaza and Palestine, as they have escalated in corruption, killing, and destruction there. Be allies to Allah and be like the heroes from the Companions, and the heroes of the Ummah, such as Salah al-Din, Qutuz, and Baybars.

﴿إِنَّا لَنَنْصُرُ رُسُلَنَا وَالَّذِينَ آمَنُوا فِي الْحَيَاةِ الدُّنْيَا وَيَوْمَ يَقُومُ الْأَشْهَادُ﴾

“Indeed, We will support Our messengers and those who believe during the life of this world and on the Day when the witnesses will stand” [Ghafir:51]
