A Picket by the Family of Brother Yusuf Ridhwan in front of the Capital Governorate

(Translated)

The family of Brother Yusuf Ridhwan, a member of Hizb ut Tahrir, have carried out a picket in front of the capital Amman's Governorate building, demanding the release of their son, who was freed by the Sulh Magistrate's Court of southern Amman, but later the governor of the capital arrested him administratively according to the Crime Prevention Law. The demonstrators insisted to continue the picket, until the delegation from the brother's relatives is granted permission to meet with the governor; their demands were to be met on the condition that they end the picket. The delegation entered the governorate building and met with the deputy governor who promised to release their son, Brother Yusuf Ridhwan next Sunday, Allah willing, on bail.
