More Abductions, More Missing Persons

Pakistan's Rulers Have Lost Their Minds in Their Campaign
Against Islam and its Khilafah

Deepening its war on Islam and the Khilafah project (Caliphate) and further inviting the anger of Allah (swt) upon itself, the Raheel-Nawaz regime has re-invigorated its policy of abduction of the advocates of Khilafah. On 9 February 2016, the advocate for the Khilafah and highly respected lecturer, Kamran, was seized by the Raheel-Nawaz regime's thugs, on his way from his Lahore home to work, with his whereabouts unknown until now. Then on 17 February Engineer Saad Khan Jadoon, the son of a highly respected judge who was martyred in the course of upholding the truth, was abducted from in front of a masjid in Islamabad, with his whereabouts unknown until now. And then on 2 March 2016, the thugs of the regime raided the home of Manzar Aziz in Lahore, not caring for the sanctity of his womenfolk, seizing him forcefully and his whereabouts also remain unknown.

The regime has descended to the level of criminal gangs, resorting to kidnapping in the vain hope that Hizb ut Tahrir will slow down in its duty and march towards the establishment of the Khilafah. However, the regime's increasingly desperate measures confirm to the Hizb that its words of truth have besieged the rulers, because Islam is loved deeply by the Muslims in general and the officers of the armed forces in particular, who hold Islam, Khilafah and Hizb ut Tahrir in high esteem. It also confirms the immense pressure upon the regime from its masters in Washington to be in the front line against the call for the Khilafah. This pressure has greatly increased in recent times because of the realization of America that, the Khilafah is indeed near, with the signs of its impending return sensed throughout the Islamic Lands, whether in Pakistan or Syria or any other place. InshaaAllah it is not long now before the imminent statesman, Ata Bin Khalil al-Rashtah, the Ameer of Hizb ut Tahrir will stand before the world as a Khaleefah for all the Muslims, a prospect that strikes dread in the hearts of the Western colonialists.

The very least the Raheel-Nawaz regime can do is to make way for the return of the Khilafah, which would indicate its awareness of its fragile and precarious situation. After all the regime finds itself in the lands of the seventh largest armed forces in the world, Pakistan, a Muslim army whom are proud grandsons of Khalid, Salahudeen and Muhammad bin Qassim and whose noble officers are well aware of the Hizb ut Tahrir's demand for their Nussrah (Material Support) for the re-establishment of the Khilafah. Moreover, when tyrants fall or fail in their services to the West, their Western masters willingly abandon them to their fate, so that they are wrenched out by the Ummah from the sewer or the gutter or any other lowly place where they hid in to escape. And despite the glaring evidences to the contrary, if the rulers have lost their minds to the point they think that they are immune to the winds of change, they must consider that their predecessors amongst the tyrants and Pharaohs thought of themselves as if they are immortals on the earth and gods other than Allah (swt). However, they were met by what Allah ordained for them. And from them is the one who is waiting now for his blackened misfortune, which he will see soon.

﴿وَلَا تَحْسَبَنَّ اللَّهَ غَافِلًا عَمَّا يَعْمَلُ الظَّالِمُونَ إِنَّمَا يُؤَخَّرُهُمْ لِيَوْمٍ تَشْخَصُ فِيهِ الْأَبْصَارُ * مُهْطِعِينَ مُقْنِعِي رُءُوسِهِمْ لَا يَرْتَدُّ إِلَيْهِمْ
طَرْفُهُمْ وَأَنْقَدُوا هَوَاءً﴾

“Consider not that Allah is unaware of that which the Zalimun do. He but gives them respite to a Day when the eyes will stare in horror. Hastening forward with necks outstretched, their heads raised up, their gaze returning not towards them and their hearts empty (from extreme fear).” [Ibrahim: 42-43]
