

Press Release

The Khilafah that you renounce is what the Sincere and Believing People of Sudan are yearning for

(Translated)

At Taghyeer Newspaper issued this morning, Wednesday, 9/12/2015, a shocking news piece, quoting the words of the Secretary-General of the Islamic Movement, Al-Zubair Ahmad al-Hassan; the newspaper reported: "...the Secretary-General of the Islamic movement Al-Zubair Ahmad al-Hassan believes that extremism and the call for the Khilafah does not resemble the character of the Sudanese people, and said that they will work to address that issue through a combination of official and popular institutions," and Al-Zubair said, "We will shift towards the left in the economy ..."

What fills the heart with pain and heartbreak, and at the same time bewilderment! That these words come out of a movement working in the name of Islam, and uttered by one of the highest man in its summit, the "Secretary-General", during a live press conference, what type of Islam is carried by this movement?! They disassociate themselves from the call to the missing crown of obligations (The Khilafah). The Ummah became lost when it was lost, and the laws of Islam regarding life were lost, and the Muslim country were divided to pieces, and ruled by the ignorant agents of the West, ruling by the Kufur Western systems; of democratic governance and capitalism in the economy, and leaving the decisions of country and its people in the hands of international Kaffir organizations, in foreign policy and others, and who compromise with the Kaffir West by rejecting the Khilafah and the Islamic systems? !!

The Khilafah, which the Secretary-General of the Islamic movement claims it does not resemble the character of the Sudanese people, is what the sincere and believing people of Sudan are yearning for, who have been deceived by Al-Inqath government in the name of Islam and ruled by other than Islam, before turning its face towards the Kaffir West and disassociating itself from Islam. The people of Sudan are yearning for the dawn of the righteous Khilafah on the method of Prophethood, like the rest of the Muslim people who realize that in the Khilafah is their liberation from the hypocrites and deceivers in the name of Islam, while Islam is innocent from them, and that in the Khilafah lies their lost glory and victory, and that in the Khilafah there is good care of their affairs and they will receive their rights with justice and fairness. The people of Sudan love those who work for the Khilafah, to rid them of the dominance of the Kaffir West and its henchmen of rulers and politicians marching in their footsteps.

As for the statement of the Secretary General of the Islamic movement regarding the shift towards the left in the economy, we will give him the benefit of doubt and say that he intended to ease or turn to the rich to get ease, and not the "left" used in the political term, and in any case, this means that they their economy is not based on Islam, it is a fact known to the Muslim people of Sudan. What was appropriate, and after more than a quarter century of being ruled by other than what Allah has revealed, and the known miserable economic situation by all, that the Secretary-General of the Islamic Movement says that we will return to Allah, and follow the Islamic economic system, but he did not say that because he knows that the Islamic economic system cannot be implemented except under the Islamic state; the righteous Khilafah on the method of Prophethood, which the Secretary-General disowns.

We hope that the name of the Islamic movement will reflect in its nature, and the Islamic creed alone will be the basis of its structure, that it adopts the details of laws from, and seek the application of the Islamic systems through the righteous Khilafah on the method of Prophethood, which brings the glory to Islam and Muslims, and humiliates Kufur and its people, and it does not seek the satisfaction of the Kaffir West, but years for the satisfaction of the Lord of the Worlds
